EXPERIENCE THE WORLD YOUR WAY

As the door slides open to your balcony, a fresh breath of ocean air rushes across your face and into the suite. She's whispering to you as her waves lap the hull, granting you passage to the most marvellous places on Earth. Stepping out into the steady breeze, you look ahead to the horizon and a cresting shoreline: your destination.

Wanderlust tugs at the heart of every traveller. It draws us into the unknown in search of something beautiful, true and unforgettable. Spellbinding vistas span vast and vibrant oceans, fl owing with the tides to windswept cliffs, i y fjords, emerald-green countrysides and white-sand beaches. The warmth and richness of humanity are felt, tasted and experienced in local connections, traditional dishes and riveting histories punctuated by architectural masterpieces and poignant ruins that captivate our imaginations.

Sail with us into those wondrous horizons and experience more than ever, one beautiful day at a time.

HISTORIC LANDS & ICONIC WILDLIFE

SITKA, ALASKA

Sitka is a fabulous place to get a feel for all that Southeast Alaska offers. Learn about its past at the Baranof Castle State Historic Site, where Alaska was officially transferred from Russia to the United States in 1867. Observe captivating wildlife on an outdoor excursion or by visiting the Alaska Raptor Centre or the Fortress of the Bear, two organisations dedicated to caring for and educating the public about their favourite animals. Sitka is also a great place to shop for handmade arts and crafts and to try some of the local cuisine, such as fresh salmon, reindeer sausage, and borscht – a reminder of the city's past.

PRINCE RUPERT, BRITISH COLUMBIA

FOR WILDLIFE SEEKERS

PRINCE RUPERT, BRITISH COLUMBIA

The north coast of Prince Rupert is home to a wide variety of wildlife, including whales and sea lions. Coastal birds like herons and eagles make these rich waters and coastline their preferred permanent home. For an up-close encounter with Prince Rupert's iconic residents, take a kayak tour and see frolicking seals and other marine life break the surface of the water. Be sure to look up to catch the birds that soar across the bay's sky, as this is a favoured spot for majestic bald eagles. These raptors have become icons of British Columbia, and you may spot their large stick nests atop the trees.

OSAKA CASTLE
OSAKA, JAPAN

Focus on Osaka's single most important attraction — Osaka Castle, whose landmark tower has become a symbol for the city. General Toyotomi Hideyoshi, the so-called 'Napoleon of Japan,' built the original castle in 1583 and although it was intended to be Japan's most impenetrable fortification, it was destroyed just 30 years after being finished. Lightning struck the castle that replaced it, burning much of it to the ground. In 1931, the castle tower was reconstructed once again, and even from a distance you will see it lording over the grounds. Despite the heavy damage that the castle has suffered over the centuries, many of the key features of the castle complex remain intact. If you can only see one attraction that defines Osaka culturally, historically and architecturally, it is Osaka Castle.

SPECTACULAR PHANG NGA BAY

PHUKET, THAILAND

When a collision occurred over 300 million years ago between the Indian subcontinent and mainland Asia, it forced limestone to rise above the water surface. The resulting karst formations appear like fairy castles out of the sea and they come in all different shapes and sizes. Vegetation on the karsts has evolved to withstand long periods of dryness and an almost complete lack of soil. See spectacular flora hanging off the vertical rock faces and cascading down the cliffs including palm trees, bamboo, ferns and wild orchids. Also visit Ko Panyi, a small island with a picturesque village extending out across the water, resting precariously on small pilings.

PEGGY'S COVE FROM HALIFAX, NOVA SCOTIA

SCENES OF MARITIME HISTORY
 HALIFAX, NOVA SCOTIA

Nova Scotia's capital city brims with maritime history and small-town charm. You'll be tempted to walk the length of a waterfront boardwalk that's dotted with first-rate museums, friendly cafés and bistros serving locally caught lobster. See commanding harbour views from the star-shaped Halifax Citadel and Victorian era delights at the beloved Public Gardens. Take in the coastal charms of nearby Peggy's Cove on a drive that winds past dramatic rock formations, a treasured lighthouse and a monument to St. Elmo, patron saint of sailors. A scenic view of a thatched-roof hut on a wooden pier extending into the turquoise ocean under a clear blue sky. The hut has a steep, conical roof made of dried palm fronds and is supported by several wooden posts. The pier is made of weathered wood and has a simple railing of white rope. The water is crystal clear, showing the sandy bottom. The sky is a vibrant blue with a few wispy white clouds near the horizon.

First on your list should be the stunning Prunelli Gorges and its deep red granite cliffs that plunge into a river. And don't miss the opportunity to get a glimpse of the Bonaparte family home, including the room Napoleon is said to have stayed in for the last time on his way back to France from Egypt. The Acropolis is one of the greatest travel destinations, not only in Greece, but in the world. It's home to the remnants of the sacred temple to Athena, the patron goddess of the city. Once you climb the Acropolis, there's a wealth of ancient temples, theatres and other attractions nearby, let alone the stunning view of the city. For a bit of modernity, spend time at the new Acropolis Museum, built to house the archeological remains of the Acropolis. During construction, they found ancient ruins of an entire settlement, dating back to 5 BCE. Now you can look down through special glass flooring and see archaeologists at work.

RETURN OF THE EMPIRE
ANTALYA, TURKEY

Turkey is an excellent place to visit if you love the history of the Greek and Roman empires. Nestled along the coast near Antalya, explore one of the best-preserved theatres of the ancient world, Aspendos. Constructed with intricate decorations and built for extraordinary acoustics, the theatre of Aspendos once hosted grand attractions that held 12,000 people. Even today, because of how remarkably well preserved the site is, plays and operas are still held here. Behind the theatre is a large area on the hillside, referred to as 'The Great Hill', where you can wander about and admire the many ancient ruins and the massive aqueduct.

OLIVE GROVE
GYTHION, GREECE

LACONIAN GULF HAVEN

GYTHION, GREECE

The former port of Sparta in antiquity lies in mainland Greece's Peloponnese region amid arid landscapes and white-sand beaches. Pastel-coloured buildings topped with red-tile roofs rise up a gentle slope from Laconia Bay, a delightful promenade of tavernas and shops reflecting in the clear water. Best known for the golden sands of 6.4km-long (4 miles) Mavrovouni Beach, Gythion also offers the opportunity to peruse ruins from excavations of many ancient sites at an archaeological museum and a hilltop ancient theatre. Head inland for an informative and tasty dive into Greek culture at the Museum of the Olive and Greek Olive Oil, followed by a stop at a family-owned winery known for organic varietals.

DISCOVER FLORENCE AT SUNSET

TUSCANY, ITALY

Spend hours exploring atmospheric Florence independently and on an enlightening guided walk as the sun dips below the horizon. The town will be especially radiant during the golden hour – that magical time right before sunset when the light appears warmer and softer. As you follow the guide from Piazza Savonarola and through the pedestrian-only zone, you will behold one architectural landmark after another. Highlights include the Duomo – whose dome legendary 15th-century architect Filippo Brunelleschi designed – and the shop-lined Ponte Vecchio, which has spanned the Arno River since medieval times. It is the only Florentine bridge to survive World War II. Approximately three hours of free time follows, during which you might drop by Michelangelo's final resting place in the Basilica di Santa Croce and meander about lesser-known areas that you may find appealing. You will also enjoy plenty of options to dine on your own as extraordinary restaurants are abundant.

SAVOUR LAND & SEA
CINQUE TERRE, ITALY

In Cinque Terre, delight in breathtaking views of villages that constitute this extraordinary city that has been deemed a UNESCO-protected territory. Then, pair the sights with exquisite delights. The Gulf of La Spezia is famous for growing mussels and for preparing them in a truly unique way: stuffed. The mussels are opened, the meat is split, and a savoury spoonful of stuffing made of cheese, herbs, bread crumbs and ground mussels is placed in the shell and then simmered in tomato sauce. Cinque Terre's namesake white wine pairs perfectly with the mussels and the rest of the delicious seafood of the region.

Sailing into Valletta, you are transported back to the era of the Knights of St. John, who planned this city as a refuge for those injured during the 16th-century crusades. At every turn you can feel the presence of the Order that ruled Malta for 200 years. Valletta's 320 monuments make it one of the most concentrated historic areas in the world and the reason it was deemed a UNESCO World Heritage site. Start with St. John's Co-Cathedral, the Grandmaster's Palace, Fort St. Elmo, the Sacred Infirmary, and Upper Barrakka Gardens. Then head to Valletta's centrepiece, the 19th-century Mosta Dome.

MOUNT BÚLANDSTINDUR
DJUPIVOGUR, ICELAND

MAJESTY OF THE EASTFJORDS

DJUPIVOGUR, ICELAND

Here in Iceland's sparsely populated Eastfjords, the small coastal village of Djúpivogur offers something magical: Mt. Búlandstindur, a pyramid-shaped basalt mountain peaking at 3,507 feet (1,069 metres) that's widely believed to be a focus of mystical forces. Nestled by the picturesque fjord of Hamarsfjörður, the town was a trading centre as far back as 1589. Visit a historic timber building called Langabud, constructed in 1790, to admire the sculptures of Djúpivogur's own Rikardur Jónsson (1888-1977). Take a boat tour to the island of Papey — named after Irish hermits who sailed to Iceland in the 7th- and 8th-centuries — to see a colony of Atlantic puffins.

ARCHITECTURAL MARVEL

GDANSK, POLAND

This town will astound you, as its unique feel sets it apart from the other, more visited cities in Poland. Experience the grandeur of this once powerful member of the Hanseatic League. The Old Town of Gdansk is particularly alluring, as it is a collection of enchanting buildings designed in the Gothic, Renaissance and Baroque styles. Marvel at the exquisite architecture as you stroll the entire length of the charming promenade of Ulica Długa, stopping to visit St. Mary's Church, which took 150 years to build, and its astronomical clock which dates from 1460. CHILEAN ADVENTURES

PUNTA ARENAS, CHILE

Although located in a fairly remote part of the world, Punta Arenas is a surprisingly large town with over 100,000 residents and ample opportunities for adventure. You can start with a stroll through the tree-filled central square of Plaza Muñoz Gamero and stop at a street vendor for a savoury sopaipilla: a fried, puffed flatbread served with a spicy Chilean salsa. Marvel at the stunning pastoral landscape of the local sheep farm or simply take a moment to reflect while gazing out over the mysterious blue waters of the Strait of Magellan. For an excursion you'll never forget, visit Magdalena Island to watch the entertaining antics of the resident penguins.

RAIATEA, FRENCH POLYNESIA

Discover the pristine natural beauty of Raiatea along the same route used by New Zealand's Maori settlers on a scenic kayak adventure on the Fa'arua River. Led by your guide, begin your journey by paddling from Raiatea's fjord-like inlet, or Fa'arua Gorge, to the scenic Fa'arua River. Along the way, you will find the steep river walls to be lush with jungle foliage, and home to diverse species of birds and wild hibiscus trees, or purau, growing along the sheer cliffs of the rainforest.

STATELY HISTORY

SANTA CRUZ DE LA PALMA, CANARY ISLANDS

Wonderfully preserved buildings from its heyday as a leading 16th-century European port abound in La Palma's capital city. In Plaza España, admire the striking architecture of Santa Cruz de La Palma Town Hall before encountering the handsome Santo Domingo Church in the upper town. Travel up the La Palma coast to the incredible mountains of Los Tilos, a UNESCO Biosphere Reserve blanketed by the most pristine laurel forest in the Canary Islands. Head south for the stunning volcanic landscapes of southern La Palma. Along the coast, sample rum made at a local distillery after dipping your toes in swimming pools formed by lava flows long ago.
